

Communications work process.

Envisioned with making the sector to lay its part in the regional economic development through promotion and source of information, the following are the major services delivered by the work process;

- ❖ Publishing the activities of each work process on monthly news letter, leaf let, brochure, publicities.
- ❖ Informing the business community and the public at large about investment activities and potentials, entrepreneurship and enterprise development, road transport security and trade expansion services.
- ❖ In collaboration with national and regional mass-media, producing programs, column articles, news. . . .
- ❖ Updating website information about the work processes.
- ❖ Facilitating the face to face communications among business community, the general public and state and government officials.
- ❖ Perform routine task on the internal work process communications to the mass-media.
- ❖ Inform, entertain and educate the internal public by producing various syndicate articles, current information and global issues.
- ❖ Making public polling on selected, current and any contentious agendas through questionnaire, telephone and interviews.
- ❖ Arranging photograph and video documentary exhibition addressing development issues.
- ❖ Liaison, coordinate and facilitate official visits and follow up media coverage so as to attain national consensus.

- ❖ Perform all other public relations and communications activities pertaining to the work process, such as writing press release, press brief, press conference, public speech and announcements.

Contact Tel. 046-220-62-86